Let's Start!

San Francisco! So many things to do!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can describe events and customs in a city.
- I can tell someone where something is located.
- I can describe places in a city.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you like to go for a walk in the city?
- What kind of places do you prefer?
Busy places? Quiet places?

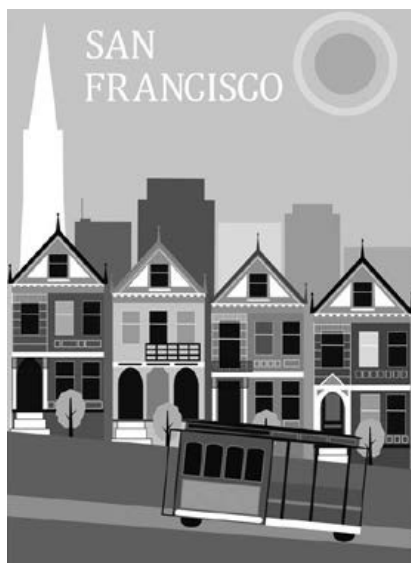

Let's Explore!

Vanessa wants to discover San Francisco. Let's take the scenic route!

* You take the "scenic route" when you want to enjoy the scenery.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Aunt Nelly: Vanessa! It's so good to see you!
Vanessa: Hi, Aunt Nelly! Long time no see!
Aunt Nelly: How are you? You look relaxed!
Vanessa: Yes! Mexico is a great place, but I'm happy to be here.
Aunt Nelly: I can't wait to show you around the city. Let's take the scenic route!
Aunt Nelly: Let's park the car. We can walk from here. There is so much to do in this part of town! You can browse in the second-hand stores in Haight-Ashbury. There are so many parks nearby if you want to just go for a run. Street bands play outside cafes every day! I love ...
British tourist: Excuse me? I'm looking for the Alcatraz Prison.
Aunt Nelly: You're a long way from Alcatraz! It's down the hill, by the bay.
British tourist: I beg your pardon?
Aunt Nelly: Why don't you come with us? We're going there, actually!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Describing Cities

When you describe a city, you can talk about its geographical features, like hill, bay, river, park.

Cities also have neighborhoods, like Haight-Ashbury in San Francisco. Neighborhoods are locations.

Neighborhoods have special traditions and festivals.

For example, there are a lot of food festivals in different parts of a city, or around the city.

Shopping is also different from one neighborhood to another.

Place	Preposition	Example
hill	down up	down the hill up the hill
bay	by	by the bay
river	by near	by the river near the river
park	in at	in the park at the park
neighborhood	in	in Haight-Ashbury

Examples:

• Ann: There are so many things to do around here.

Bob: Yes! You can have a drink by the river, sit in the park, or go for a run up the hill!
