- Aunt Nelly: What movies take place in Alcatraz?
- Tour Guide: Escape from Alcatraz, The Birdman of Alcatraz.
- Aunt Nelly: Ooh ... What's the plot?
- Tour Guide: It's the story of a special inmate. Burt Lancaster is the main actor. He plays a killer. He spends 43 years alone in a cell. His only friend is a sparrow. He feeds the bird and begins to read about them. After many years, he becomes a bird expert and publishes a book about ...
- Vanessa: Excuse me?
- Tour Guide: Do you have a question about the movie?
- Vanessa: Uhm ... no ... Where is the gift shop?
- Tour Guide: It's across the yard, on your left. The Alcatraz movies are there!
- Vanessa: Where is Al Capone's cell?
- Tour Guide: It's right in front of you!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Talking About Movies

The group of people who make a movie are called the crew.

When a famous actor acts in a movie, he or she stars in it.
When a director makes a movie, you say that it is made by ...

The story of a movie is also called the plot.

Film Crew/Filmmakers	What they do
Writer	Writes the screenplay
Director	Makes the movie
Cameraman	Shoots the scene
Actor	Performs; Plays the role of a character

Examples:

- John Frankenheimer is the director of the "Birdman of Alcatraz".
- Burt Lancaster stars in it. He plays the main character.

Giving Directions in a Building

You use wh- questions to ask for directions in a building.

You can use the Imperative, expressions and prepositions of place to give directions.

Asking for Directions	Giving Directions
Where is ... ? How do I get to ... ?	Go straight ahead. Turn right/left. Walk across/through ... Take the stairs ... In front of ...

Examples:

- Valerie: Excuse me, where is the gift shop?
- Guide: It's across the yard, on your left.
