

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

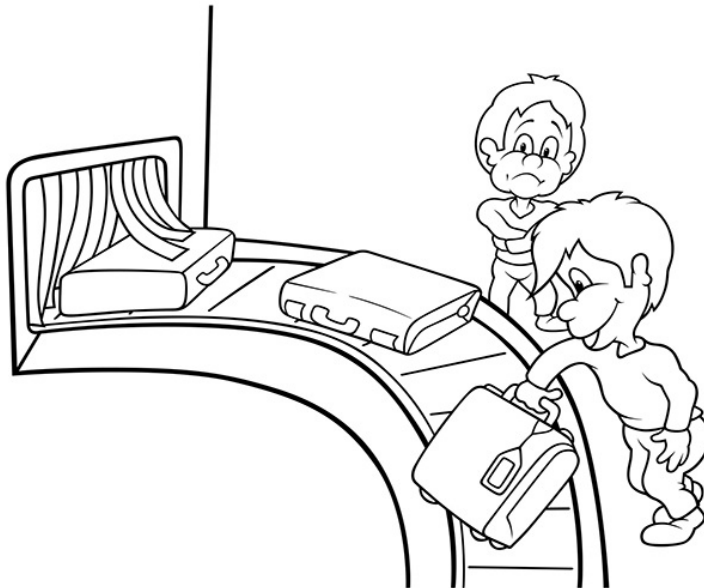

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Final destination: San Francisco! Let's get the suitcase ready!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you like to pack when you go on holiday?
- Do you like to bring a lot of things? Why? Why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can request and reply to information from a stranger.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can talk about things you take on a trip.

Let's Explore!

Does Vanessa know where to exchange currency? Does she ask someone?

* "Currency" is the kind of money people use in a country, like US dollars or Mexican pesos.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Excuse me, do you work here?
Airport Attendant: Yes. How can I help you?
Vanessa: Could you tell me where the baggage claim area is?
Airport Attendant: What kind of luggage do you need to pick up?
Vanessa: I beg your pardon? I don't understand.
Airport Attendant: Is your luggage oversized? Is it a surfboard, or scuba diving equipment?
Vanessa: No, no. It's a regular suitcase. I have my beachwear inside: swimsuit, sunglasses, beach towel ...
Airport Attendant: In that case, go straight ahead. The baggage carousel is in the arrivals hall.
Vanessa: Thank you. Could I ask you something else?
Airport Attendant: Certainly.
Vanessa: Where can I exchange some currency? I have some pesos left from my trip to Mexico.
Airport Attendant: The currency exchange booth is over here, on your left.
Vanessa: Thanks again ... I can't wait to see Aunt Nelly!

Let's Practice!

Vanessa is requesting information! Could someone help her?

Instructions: Select the correct answer.

1. Vanessa wants to know where the baggage claim area is. What does she say?
 - ☐ Could you tell me where the baggage claim area is?
 - ☐ You could tell me where the baggage claim area is?
 - ☐ Could I tell you where the baggage claim area is?
2. Vanessa has another question. What is it?
 - ☐ Where am I exchange some currency?
 - ☐ Where can I exchange some currency?
 - ☐ Where can I exchanging some currency?
3. Vanessa has one last question! What does she say? Could I ask you something else?
 - ☐ Would I ask you something else?
 - ☐ Do I ask you something else?
 - ☐ Could I ask you something else?

Let's Practice!

Do you have any questions? The airport attendant is here to help you!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|-------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. Excuse me, | do you work here? |
| 2. Yes, how | I don't understand. |
| 3. Could you tell me | do you need to pick up? |
| 4. What kind of luggage | where the baggage claim area is? |
| 5. I beg your pardon? | can I help you? |

Extension Activity

You want to ask the airport attendant for information. Write a dialogue with a partner.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self Assessment.

- Go online and look for 5 places that are in an airport.
- Write a dialogue between you and the attendant. Use 5 target words from the lesson.
- Ask for information about each of the places. Use modal verbs.
- The attendant conveys information to you.
- Practice your dialogue with a partner.
- Switch roles.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I use modals for requests.

☐ ☐

I convey information to a stranger.

☐ ☐

I use 5 target words.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- baggage claim area (noun): the place in an airport where you collect your luggage
e.g. Please collect your suitcase at the baggage claim area.
- oversized (adjective): an item that is too big e.g. My suitcase is regular size, but my golf bag is oversized.
- booth (noun): a counter where you can get information or other services e.g. I need to get some US dollars at the currency exchange booth.
- surfboard (noun): an item you use to ride over waves
e.g. My surfboard is not at the baggage claim area because it's oversized.
- to pick up (verb): to get; to collect e.g. I need to pick up my suitcase.
- scuba diving (noun): swimming underwater to explore marine life
e.g. I love scuba diving. There is so much to explore underwater!
- equipment (noun): a set of items you use for an activity
e.g. You need a lot of equipment to go scuba diving.
- baggage carousel (noun): the place in an airport where your luggage is delivered e.g. My suitcase is not on the baggage carousel!
- arrivals hall (noun): the place in an airport where passengers arrive e.g. The currency exchange booth is at the end of the arrivals hall.
- beachwear (noun): items you wear on the beach
e.g. I can't find my suitcase! I have all my beachwear inside!

Learning Points

Requesting Information

When you need to ask a stranger for information, you use the Simple Present Tense and expressions like: Excuse me ... or Sorry ... to get their attention.

When you provide information to a stranger about your place of work, you can reply with an offer of help like How can I help you?

Requesting Information	Providing information
Excuse me ... Do you work here? Where can I exchange some currency? Could you tell me where ... ?	Yes, how can I help you? The exchange booth is here on your left.

